

Bangladesh Visa and Travel Guidance

Visa Types:

1. Tourist Visa: For those traveling for tourism purposes. Can be a single-entry or multiple-entry visa.
2. Business Visa: For business-related travel. Requires an invitation letter from the Bangladesh-based company.
3. Student Visa: For individuals planning to study in Bangladesh. Requires acceptance from a recognized educational institution.
4. Transit Visa: For travelers passing through Bangladesh en route to another destination.
5. NGO Visa: For workers or volunteers joining NGOs in Bangladesh.

Application Process:

1. Online Application: Start by filling out the visa application form on the Bangladesh visa portal.
2. Payment: Pay the required visa fee, which can vary depending on the visa type and processing speed.
3. Appointment: Schedule an appointment at the nearest Bangladesh consulate or embassy.
4. Document Submission: Submit all necessary documents in person or online, depending on your embassy's procedure.
5. Approval and Collection: After processing, collect your visa from the consulate/embassy.

Required Documents:

- Passport: Must be valid for at least 6 months beyond your planned stay in Bangladesh.
- Visa Application Form: Filled out and signed.
- Passport Photos: Recent color photos, meeting consulate requirements.
- Visa Fee Payment Receipt: Proof of payment for the visa.
- Supporting Documents: Depending on the visa type, these could include flight bookings, accommodation reservations, financial statements, invitation letters, or acceptance letters from educational institutions.

Travel Tips:

- Stay Informed: Regulations change frequently, so always check for the latest updates before applying.
- Visa Validity: Ensure your visa covers your entire stay. Overstaying can result in fines or future travel restrictions.
- Currency and Exchange: Use local currency, Bangladeshi Taka (BDT), for most transactions. Currency exchange is available at the airport and local banks.
