3. F-1 Student Visa: For students enrolled in a US-based educational institution.
4. H-1B Work Visa: For skilled workers in specialized occupations.
5. C-1 Transit Visa: For travelers passing through the USA en route to another destination.

Application Process:

1. DS-160 Form: Complete the DS-160 visa application form online, which includes personal and travel details.
2. Visa Fee Payment: Pay the visa application fee based on the visa category.
3. Schedule Interview: Book an appointment at the nearest US consulate or embassy.
4. Prepare Documents: Gather all necessary documents (passport, DS-160 confirmation, visa appointment confirmation, photos, financial documents, etc.).
5. Visa Interview: Attend the interview and submit biometric data (fingerprints).
6. Visa Issuance: If approved, wait for the visa to be issued and mailed to you.

Required Documents:

- Passport: Valid for at least 6 months after your planned arrival in the USA.
- Visa Application Fee Receipt: Proof of payment for the visa application fee.
- DS-160 Confirmation: Complete DS-160 form confirmation page.
- Passport Photos: Meet specific size and background requirements.
- Proof of Funds: Bank statements, pay slips, or other proof to demonstrate financial capability.
- Invitation Letter: If applicable, provide an invitation letter from a family member, employer, or educational institution.
- Travel Itinerary: Flight and accommodation details.

Travel Tips:

- Visa Interview Preparation: Be clear about the purpose of your trip and have supporting documents ready to show strong ties to your home country.
- Medical Insurance: It is highly recommended to have health insurance during your stay in the USA.
- ESTA for Short Visits: For citizens of certain countries, consider applying for the Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) if visiting under the Visa Waiver Program.
